Well, glad i got my oder in for the 2nd set - I could only get 1 though to go with my meager collection of DF produces. But I'm having fun figuring out how to place the different pcs together. I wish i had more, but it seems I started to late almost everything is out of stock, but i'm working on chaching up as best as i can! :). Hindsight is great I should have started my collection with I first saw DF ads oh about 4-5 years ago I think it was.

p.s. a copy of the ideas booket would be nice if someone could e-mail to me ! :D Thanks

now I have Pre-Ordered DoE x1
Cavernous Passage x1
Room & Passage x1
Fantasy Floor, Mermaid Fountain,
Dungeon Accessories, Medieval Furniture Set,
Treasure & Magic Items, Orc War Band
and Skeleton War Band

Fizban,

The Good News Of Course is that there are Re-stocks Planned in With the Various New Sets... Course this requiers some Patience of Course, But at Least There are things that "Will" be available in the Future rather than being Gone Forever... Also Hey, at least You Found DF now, and Not 3-4 Years from Now?.....

Here's another question: does the pre-order charge go on when the item is ordered or when it is shipped? Cause damn, I want me a second set but I gotta get paid first.

Yes, all Pre-Orders are charged at the time they are placed (thus the discount)

Crapulon.

Gotta get paid...gotta get paid...

Hey Stefan, you wouldn't trade a set for a 4gb memorex USB "thumb" drive with LCD display would you? ;) j/k

There are still some DoE sets available for your Christmas shopping pleasure. Please order one for all your gaming buddies, and then send them a card saying that it will show up in Feb.
