

Sci-Fi Minis?

I would love to see some DF sci-fi minis. I know that Star Wars is coming out with a line. But I need minis like the old Traveler sets.

Adventurers w/shot guns, guys in vacc suits, scientists, generic worker robots, starport workers, etc etc. I think the star wars line will be expensive and of marginal value to our gaming group (How many Luke w/L-sabre can I use?). :rolleyes:

A line of sci-fi vehicles would be sweet. air-rafts, grav-tanks etc.

I would pay Buku-Bucks for painted, ready to use stuff like this.

Damn Skippy... Although I Hate to Think of what the Price might be on Vehicles, (Or the Weight? Maybe they could be Hollow?). I Too would Love to See Some Generic Sci-Fi Figs pre-painted to DF Standards... Mechanics, Bartenders, Shop Keepers, Preachers/ Clergy, Constabulary, Peasants,(and maybe some Cyborg and Robot Versions of these as well), all the Specialized Stuff that Will Never Be Available from GW or Lucas...

AAAA-min Brother !!!!

Remember the old Traveler sets???

Tech guy with data pad.....

Nobel guy with cape and rod.....

Vacc suit guy with pistol.....

We have these sets and they are most useful. (Used every game!)

I would love to see a Stormtrooper with his helmet off smoking a Cig. with a cup of coffee. Chances: 0% :(

With the Star Wars mini game coming out in September, it is hard to compete in this market. We shall see.

Ok, How about a set of creatures that could have dual roles in a fantasy or sci-fi game?

- 1) Large angry worm thing
- 2) Giant insect creature
- 3) Furry beast w/horns
- 4) Slime creature

Stuff like this is very genaric and would be useful to lottsa groups.

You do need to at least make a Dwarf..... :lol:

I use AT-43 minis for anything sci-fi. You can buy some singles from miniature market. Looks like this post was dug up from beyond the grave.

I use doom's minis. (boardgame 2005) & some zombies + modern civilians. Got some metal box, medical bay & accessories from other companies.
