Even colder. Here's a hint:

It's from a film featuring a 2005 Oscar winner, and also a Baldwin.

And just to keep the thread on track, I recently emailed the folks at Discount Hobby, and they were certain (almost adamant) that they would have Grendel products available for sale at GenCon. I'm not sure what that means for a restock on their site, though.

Sandy & I can't be there until Friday evening (work commitments, damn it!).
Oh Help.

Fingers crossed - one pair only.

Dunno on the Minotaur quote.

See ya!
