Dwarven Forge - Dwarven Forge Generated: 23 July, 2014, 11:41 I need to order pieces!!! Posted by MrMorden - 2005/12/01 06:39 I'm beginning to get the feeling that many of the "out of stock" items on the DF website will never again be in stock. I've been waiting patiently to buy some additional floor tile pieces from the cavern set, and it has been many months since they have been available. Same for several other pieces I'd like to pick up. Will we ever see these again?!? I need to order pieces!!! Posted by doktorziplok - 2005/12/01 18:53 same boat here. i've got about 5-6 sets i want to order, but without stuff in the stock room, i'll be forced to buy elsewhere. I need to order pieces!!! Posted by RabidFox* - 2005/12/02 02:28 One of the lists that admin put up a while back had the floor tiles being in one of the cartons coming during the first half of 2006. Did not pay strict attention so that's all I have.

Sorry.

Just read back a ways; you should run into it.

Hey MrMorden long time no hear. I have tryed many on line game stores also to no avail. Places like hitpoint, nobelnight, dragons trove, rpg something or another. Seems like many of them have been bought out. Some have a few cavern things as I remember but no floors. Even ebay will only rarly have a floor piece come up and you can bet if would go for about 20 bucks. Wait wait wait....
