There has been a lot of talk about GenCon this year...

Who is planning on going, i really wanted to hit one, either GenCon or Origins, but Origins seems like a bust (events i would be interested in not being run) even though it is a tad bit closser...

Just thinking and planning...

I will have to wait and see.
If I can go, my wife and two sons will be coming along as well.

I really wanted to go to GenCon this year, but we just found out we've got another baby on the way, so I really don't see it happening.

I'm still trying to figure out how to pay for a hotel and all (and the cost of True Dungeon...don't see it posted anywhere yet)... however, I'd like to go. If I do, my wife, 4 mo. old, and 23 mo. old will be tagging along but possibly not spedning much time at the convention itself (my wife overheats in such crowds and loses conciousness so she doesn't attend many large functions).

I'm relatively close being from metro Detroit, MI area.
