Would it be at all possible to produce a DoE Room Set (without passages)? Is it in the DF's plans or ...?

Who would be interested by a Room Set?

This Discussion has been Ongoing for a little bit in the DoE discussion in Another thread... But it Seems the Answer is Yes... People would like Such Sets... The Discussion Now seems to be about how to Address A Useful Such Set without Messing too Much with the LE Nature of the Existing DoE Room and Passage Set...

OOOH, OOOH, Me, Me, Me!

Okay, enough of the little-kid-in-a-candy-store routine.
I think you guys get the idea.

Suggestion; NO LE certificate, NO fancy box label.

Although I certainly don't care if my Limited Edition Collector's Set of Den of Evil suddenly loses 90% of it collectible value, because I bought it TO PLAY WITH!

But that's just me; others have different reasons, and those are rightfully theirs to have and to hold.

But I wonder if they'll ever take the pieces out of the plastic bubble bags and set 'em up?

Hmmm....

Anyway, put out a room set, and put me down for AT LEAST ONE!!

Same goes for DoE Wicked Additions, etc. By buddy ReBob swears I'm a collector, but if I AM, I'm a player/collector.

I gotta have SOME standards, don't I?

See YA!

Jim,

Darn Skippy... I Can not Imagine Not Playing with my DF, if Only to Take it out and Set up Random Settings for Ideas... Though I Have Not Done Much with my DoE yet in terms of Play, Low Numbers on a LE Collectable set or Not, My Daughter is NOT Going to College Financed by Future Sales of my DF.....

I wasn't aware of that, so: sorry for the clone thread, folks. I guess that's okay if we go on here though?

I'm really interested in the DoE-wicked additions that seems to be in DF schedules. And I'd be interested in a room set because it would multiply the interest/versatility of the DoE pieces IMO.

It is not uncommon at all for Similar Topics to Proceed at the Same time around here.....

Well Stefan Has Not Committed to Anything, but He has Recognized the Need/Desire and seems to think it is a Feasible Idea, Just No Solid When, What or How kinda' Info...

Well they could just make a LE Room Set. Yeah but when to do it. I still want my Cavern and Sci-Fi, LOL. Maybe something also for 2007? A LE DOE Room set. Or just a Deluxe Room set. I would like someking of Dead End for all of these passages!!! And a DOE Secret Door....WHHOOOOOOOO!!

WhiteWind,

Stefan had Casually Commented that 2007 Would be the Earliest that a New Concept could go into the Possibility Phase, (In Reference to the Modular Room Discussion), So My Guess is that For Now things already in the Works are in No Danger, and Future Endeavors are A Couple of Years Off...

DoE Secret Door... Someone had Commented (Maybe Stefan?), that The Existing DoE Doors are Almost Secret as it is... What I Would Love to See would be Alternate types of Door Panals that Could be Dropped into the Existing DoE Door Frames... Windows, Cell Doors, Bars, Porticullis Magic Force Barrier Etc...

How about this for a non LE- DoE Room Set:

- no certificate
- and of course no passage pieces (so making the passages LE)
  - i think most of us hae enough passages from the DoE LE.

Comments ?

'Scuse me, Dudebird, I haveta wipe my chin off. Your ideas had me drooling there.

I'll take a dozen gross (if I hit the Big Game!).

Otherwise, I still want 1-2 sets, maybe 3.

Man...this is a tough one. It would be hard for us ethically to come out with a DoE Room Set that was just a clone of the Room and Passage Set without the passages. We advertised it as limited edition, and I feel we must stick to that. Any new DoE sets should probably only contain NEW DoE pieces. I guess we are just going to have to include different Straight Walls, Diagonal and Corner Walls in the Wicked Addition set -- with the bottom layer taking up all these pieces. Anybody got a better idea?

sounds good to me but i don't think it will be a problem for anybody if you also include some normal room pieces in the next set.

I think the much bigger problem will be the release date - 2007 is very very far away.....

don't feel rushed but could you please hurry?

Perhaps Future New Themes will only have "Semi-Limited-Editions"?.....
