M. Tom;

Tell the kids "Yes, that is what American Smurfs look like when they escape the TV set!"
If you're fortunate, that will keep them from EVER wanting to watch that atrocious Saturday Morning Cartoon pollutant!

In other news, the setup looks great; definitely up to your usual good work! I applaud from across the ocean.

See ya!

Jim

Now that is cool. It's huge! I was looking at the pics and couldn't really get a feel for the scale until the pic with the kids standing next to it. Why the somber faces on the children? Were their characters the ones that wound up in the lava pit? ;-}~

Good work, Tom. Keep the pics coming!

Totally Awesome Tom! That Pit is a great idea, it's fun to see the multi level stuff, what a massive temple!

WOW !!!! Beautiful set-up, Tom !!! The kids look a little nervous about the sacrificial pit, though ... that's one way to ensure good behavior :)

_____

Incroyable Tom!

The question that needs to be ask is how many sets it took?
