My good folks the 4th adventure THE LAIR OF THE REMUS BULL is now avilable. :D The adventure uses the following sets. Wicked Additions 1 & 2, the Advanced Builders set...I like that one lots...Room & Passage Set, Narrow passage set & the Octagonal set. The adventure consits of 3 levels and is without a doubt the best adventure I've done yet....It's available from www.loud1.net.
Happy gaming
Gez :D

Er.....your link is under construction. What a horrible taunting!!! :lol:

Can you tell me about it? Several maps? One large one?

Could you post just the maps or would that be nuts? :shock:

This is still 3.0? Besides, they are in England. Do they sell over here?

_____

Yep we are based in England, NobleKnight sell our stuff in the US. I still use 3.0 as I think it works, however, I do use the 3.5 Monster Manual as it's better laid out especially as it lists the grapple attacks, which always used to confuse the heck out of me...
