We're all glad you care enough to postpone the product rather than ship inferior products.

Thanks for all your work, Jeff. :)

I Agree, and as Much as I Hate to Wait, and as Much as I Have to Say that DF is Like a Video Game Company Some times when it comes to Release Dates, I Would Much prefer a Quality Product to a Hasty but Inferior One...

MrThou,

I Know... But How many Times have they Sold the Company, Started a New Graphics Engine, Built from Ground Up... Sold the Rights... Yadda-Yadda-Yadda... At this Point I am Rooting for a Fallout 3 (A Real One), or a Diablo III Either Could have a Better Chance of Actually Being Completed one day then DN unfortunately... Doom 3 Looks Promiseing though right?

Diablo 3 will come out, then Blizzard finds another intern to sell thier soul for the success of the game.

Tis my theory that blizzard sells souls for thier games to become popular.
Because well, they mosty suck, or are just rehashes of thier older games... Sometimes both.

Edit: Yet, i cant stop playing.
