excellent can't wait!

I think that DF needed more water tiles and this is perfect. Not to mention a perfect floor tile for a climatic battle! Can we see the other 4 pieces?

Yea, Tell us! We won't tell anyone.....(GRIN)

Guesses:

1) Well Floor
2) Pentagram Tile
3) Barred Grate?
4) Dug out Hole?
5) Dry Well?

6) Telaport Circle?

How many are there anyway????

I WANT. YOU GIVE. NOW!

Seriously, that's fantastic looking stuff. Sigh. Just when I looked at the stuff I have and said "Well, that about does it - no more for me."

;)

Rock! That looks great. I'm exclusively fantasy RPG these days, and I was worried that the Sci-Fi sets would mean no new fantasy MM this year, but these samples look great.

I don't wanna wait til November!

I want a dozen of just the "magic circles" (ie Demon Summoning locations for my villians :twisted:). The others are great fluff.

This DF stuff looks GREAT!

That sounds great! Will individual pieces be offered for sale at the same time the set comes out? I can see myself buying one or two of these sets and then getting more of the floor rifts and water pools.

Sorry...due to manufacturing costs we could only make the full sets right now. We may be able to offer individual pieces next year but right now only full sets will be sold.

Oh... Wow... Umm..... I Really Dig that this Lava Pool Is Not Two Dimensional in Appearance (Not that Any DF Stuff is)... Because Lets Face it If You Guys Released a 2"x2" Floor Section Painted Orange we would Buy And Go Hey That's Pretty Kewl... But This Is Quite a Nifty Bit O' Architecture, Which Could be a Legitimate Quest Piece... Can't Wait... Well I Mean I Can, Cause I Have to... But I Don't Wanna'...

Don't let them change the painting scheme on the lava pit. If you do I won't buy it. Who am I kidding, ok I'll still buy it, but I won't like you guys as much :lol:

The pics are great, I'm very much looking forward to getting at least one of these sets.

But I have a question -- it looks, from the first couple pictures, like the new floor sections are a millimeter or two "taller" than the surrounding floors. Is that a side effect of the prototyping, or will we see that in the final sets?

If I recall he posted that they are slightly over sized over the final product. So they should be fine when finished.

Hi Jeff, congratulations on joining DF. I`m Paul from London UK by the way. We have not spoken before but I did meet Stefan at Gencon in London last year. I`m glad to see that new fantasy products are in the pipeline despite the pressure that the sci fi releases must be putting on you all.

The floor set looks and sounds great. The only addition I would suggest (though probably too late), is a large carpeted floor tile for things like royal chambers and wizards studies.

Cheers

Paul

London,

I Am Hoping they are Holding out for a "Theme" Pack for a Wizards Library/ Study, With Desks, Tables, Bookcases, Scroll/ Tome Podiums, And a Variety of "Ornate" Floors/ Walls...

GmDm,

These Pics are Posted on this Site, Under One of the Floor Photo Announcement Threads...
