IMHO sticking to the "Room and Passage" format for new limited edition sets does not work. I would prefer a single transition passage peice (such as a cool hall with alcoves and statues) to all of the L, +, and T passages. Mabe it is just me but I tend to use the DOE for the main worship chamber of an evil temple complex and it tends to be one room. I really wasn't able to do this well until the subsequent expansions for DOE came out.

The new limited Edition Set Jeff is working on will not be the same configuration as the R&P Set design...

Cool, i got to say while Passages have some very nice uses, I do prefer Rooms, i think you get just a bit more Bang for the Buck
