Dragon Con 2008

Hey folks...

I know it's been a while, but I was wondering if anyone is planning on hitting Dragon Con this year? My wife and I were discussing doing GenCon (Since I have never been) but it is a lot more expensive... So we are thinking Dragon instead...

I would dig getting a chance to meet some fellow DF-philes, and, perhaps, find a pick-up game to jump in on?

Even better would be if someone from around here were already planning on going and running a game? I'd love to get involved...

Hope all have been well...

Hey MLV nice to hear from you. I was hoping to go this year until we spent a horrid amount of money on " Stuff " for the house. Must hibernate this year and pay pay pay. Maybe 2009 sounds like fun.

Hey there WhiteWind,

Good to read ya... Yeah, I hear you on the ca$h front... I think that next year will be unlikely for Dragon as we are going to be hosting the 3rd Klingon Summer Games event down here... Hey, ya want to come and be a Judge at the Games?! Woot...

Anyway, thanks for responding....

Anyone else planning on Dragon this year?
