_____

We will be displaying pieces from the new Realm of the Ancients Set as well as the new Advanced Builder 2 Set at our Gen Con booth. Be sure to stop by and have a look. Bring your own napkins and bibs...we will run out by noon on Thursday.

Here is a small tease for you.

BTW, both sets are AWESOME!

AAAW! That looks awesome! I want to see some pieces too!

Would you post some pics after the Con?

Greetings,

Stefan just sent me more pics of the long-slaved-over Realm of the Ancients set.

They looked so cool my face melted off and my shoes caught on fire. I looked liked that head Nazi at the end of Raiders of the Lost Ark.

This is one of those times when I get to be a collector again and just totally geek out!

(Anyone seen my eyebrow?) More pics soon.

Jeff, sometimes you can be SO EVIL to us! That's just MEAN!
I'm going to go sit in my corner and sulk for a while now. (whimper) :lol: :lol: :lol:

Holy Mosaic, Batman !!!!!

This looks fantastic, Stefan !!! I can think of a number of applications for the ROTA environment (based on the little we've seen so far). When is this due out again ???

Thank you for the small tease but now I'm like a kid waiting for Christmas delivery of the full photos (not to mention getting my actual sets in hand !!!!

How did I miss this....!?!?!

Wow. Wow wow wow.

A few quick points....

1. I had posted a few times before asking people what they expected in terms of color, and from what I see here... it looks perfect. There's no way it could be better. The colors work perfectly. It's stunning.

2. Nobody does this better. Hot damn, I really want this set. Every time I think DF has produced the Single Greatest Set, they manage to release something else that just blows me away and is instantly indispensable. It happened with the water sets, it happened with the chasm set, it happened with MBS, now it looks like it's going to happen again.

I'm just knocked on my @#$#@.. Fantastic, fantastic stuff. Can't wait for it.
