_____

It is 99% likely that all the RotA Sets (including International) will be shipped out on Monday, Feb. 23rd.

Thank you all again for your awesome support for this new product line. It has been a great success, and we very much appreciate your business during these less than stellar economic times. You are the best collectors in the world!

YeeeeeHaaaaaa !

I'm really looking forward to this, as I've never purchased a Dwarven Forge product before.

Really hope I won't become another addict.

Awww....what's the point of buying if you're not hooked on it :)

Seriously, you can't help but get hooked on the stuff. And, you're joining the DF addiction on a fantastic set! I can't wait for mine.

Wonder if DF will ship the set 'early' for international customers.....not that it will matter for me since I'll be interstate until the 1st of march for work.

How cool...!!!

800 pound gorillas, some aztec jaguar-men, a swarm of very large bugz and some Egyptian Centaurs are all eagerly awaiting their new home.

Bring on ROTA 2!!!
