My girlfriend framed my DOE certificate of authinticity. Sorry just had to post this to honor all the females who like DF. If your girlfriend/wife likes DF, then she is a keeper! :) Happy gaming bro's! http://dwarvenforge.com/images/fbfiles/images/23261/IMG_0548.JPG

Ok Guys I will go one with you but maybe not better.
My wife got me into plastic crack so I could spend more time with her and the kids instead of painting all day saturday and only hanging out sat. night. She then suggested that my 6yr old was old enough to do something basic so she invented Dungeon Race. I described it on another thread. Suffice to say it is a fun game to play with a youngster and DF. But the Cream de la cream, my wife Organized my 2000 figures recently, catalogued them and is replacing the felt on the bottom of my DF pieces with thicker black felt. She also makes cookies, pies, and cakes for the every 3 week game I run.

WE ARE ALL LUCKY to have GREAT WOMEN feed our habits.
