

The Tavern expansion set....at the bottom it shows window...

Posted by thenorthman - 2007/08/31 02:46

Hello

When you look at teh Tavern Expansion set ($79.00) it show a picture of all that is included (I assume it shows that), then when you go to the bottom of the page it shows two different shots of the same window with a "shutter" and wood beam that goes across it.

Are these window's with the beam and shutter come with the set or were they specail thing like maybe a pre-order incentive thing?

Sorry if this has been asked before.

Looking even closer it looks like a piece that just "slips" into a window piece.

The window shutters were a special pre-order incentive, they are not normally included with the set.

Also, it's not the "Tavern Expansion Set," that sounds closer to the $35 Tavern Accessory set due in Oct. It's the Medieval Building Expansion set (though I may have the name wrong, but if I do, it's only slightly).

Hopefully, those shutters, or ones very much like them, will one day be available for regular order. I only got one set of the Expansion set, so I only have four of those -- but I'd love to get more!

And yes, you're right - they slip into the regular MBS windows. Pretty sweet.

When they do these pre order things is it announced that is what you have to do to be able to get them?

Or do you just pre-order something and :O) got a extra thing. Sounds like a stupid question but I remembeer at Gencon that there was a guy asking somthing about it but beyond that I didn't pay much more attention.

There is a big announcement, it's very hard to miss if you're reading the forums. If you only look at the website, it might be possible to miss (though I'm sure it's mentioned) But over at the forums and in the newsletter, it's announced, and then we usually all won't shut up about it.

It's really question of timing -- if you're here when the announcement is made, for like a month afterwards we all talk about it and you can't miss it. If you aren't here that time, then the chat dies down and you'd probably have to go looking for the info, you might not notice it.
