DoE Sets Sold Out for Good?

Anyone know if the DOE Wicked and Room Sets are gone for good? I heard a rumor that there were still sets left and would be restocked in August (I saw pics of the sets available at GenCon). Anyway, August is nearly over and no restocks. I guess it was just a rumor.

Is there a restock for either of these sets in the near future? Or is that it for the line?

The first Den of Evil set is indeed sold out for good. It shows up on eBay every now and then (that's how I got my two, though it can be pricey!).

I believe that the DoE Wicked Additions and DoE Room Set will be re-stocked, but I think this might be the last run for both.

I HATE limited edition products. Just thought I'd throw that out there. :(

Jeff told me awhile back that there are 200 DOE wicked eddtions left before they are sold out completely. I'm not sure what's left on the room set but I'm sure there are more coming otherwise it would be gone from the product page and not just sold out.
