Attn: International Customers Going to Gen Con !!! Posted by admin - 2008/07/21 08:35

If you are an international customer and you are coming to Gen Con Indy (Aug. 14-17) to buy some DF stuff, please let me know ASAP what pieces/sets you wish to buy. I will make sure we have some of those sets on hand to fill your order. Due to high shipping costs, we are trying to just take orders at Gen Con Indy for USA customers, and then ship out the sets the next week. The shipping will be free to customers inside the USA.

Well not exactly international but close to it in terms of shipping.
I will be picking up; if available at Gencon, 2 Narrow Passage sets, and 2 Cavernous River sets. Not as much as I originally planned but something.

It would be cool if you have 1 Sci-Fi Gamma set for me on hand.
The reason i preordered none was the high shipping cost

Okay it is killing me. I want so much but can only survive getting so much with my CFO/Wife.
Could I also get a DoE Room set with the 2 Narrow Passages and 2 Cavernous River sets.
If you would like I could "pre-pay" them before I leave for Gencon as well. Then if possible just pick them up there. Let me know if we want to set something up like that? Or IF I can do something like that?! :O)

Please just pay at the showjust in case you change your mind or something happens.
Thanks.

Well you guys have some of the "Half Bow Ties"? I keep forgetting to add them to my orders when I am in your store and would like to pick some up but not make an order for them specifically. :)
