We just purchased our 25th set (MM-038 Wicked Additions #3) and would like to know what was in the MM005 & MM016 sets.

I believe that MM-005 was the 30 Short Passages Set.

MM-016 was the Treasure and Magic Items Set, which really needs to get back into production! Please?!?! :-)

_____

I believe this is accurate.
Link to the contents of most DF sets.

There was some offical talk of this 6 months or more ago, wasn't there? Would really like to see it back in stock as well...maybe with a few new peices to entice those who already have it to get another?

yes, it's right...

the traesures and magical items set is pretty kool...unfortunately, it has become very expensive to manufacture and there is also a very high minimum order from the factory....both these factors don't bode well for a return...we are however, working on another set which is similar: treasures and artifacts set....

The treasure set has always been one of my absolute favorites. It and the tavern set provide something you don't see anywhere else -- insane levels of detail on tiny accessories, perfect to make a set up feel really REAL.

Awesome news that more might be on the way....
