

Laughing Moon Chronicles

Hi guys,

I'm a LONG time collector of Dwarven Forge products and miniatures in general. Although I don't post out here too often, I am reading the forum out here every week and, like you, always looking forward for the next big release.

I just wanted to introduce myself officially--my name is Todd VanHooser and in addition to being a collector, I'm also a fantasy author. I've just released my first novel, and I honestly feel that its something gaming fans, and fantasy readers in general will enjoy. I sincerely don't want this to come off sounding like shameless self-promotion, but getting the word out there is an incredibly difficult first step, and this community has always been extremely genuine and welcoming.

If you guys would, check out the website, tell a few friends, and drop me a line. Its www.toddvanhooser.com and has just been up and running for a few weeks.

Those who post out here are a real community, and I would love nothing more than to have this group behind me.

Thanks a lot!

Todd

Hey Stefan, are there any other forums or fantasy communities you would recommend promoting the book? I really think fantasy fans would enjoy it if they only knew about it and where to find it!

Thanks!!
