Restock

Hey there all Dwarven Forge fanatics! just have a little question, myself and my friend are thinking of placing our first order its quite a large selection of stuff altogether coming to around $1000 and while we really want to get started with our games with a real kick ass kit, we were just wondering when a restock will come for these sets below:

Wicked Additions #2 Set
Fantasy Floor Set
Wicked Additions Set
Advanced Builder Set
Advanced Builder Set 2

we are in the Uk and while we know that its not the most expencive place to have mail sent to from America its still a little costly so we would ideally like to place the whole order in one go (to save a little on shipping costs into the Uk)... Any infomation would be awesome! Cheers guys

Hi Barbarus,

Good to know you're getting into DF too... You'll love it!!!
Unfortunately, I think you probably won't get an answer to your question.
I guess the DF managers don't want to commit providing exact answers in case they would disappoint customers such as if someone was to order all available stock of a specific item within the first minutes of a re-stock.

May I suggest you provide your email to the newsletter?

Also, you can click upon the "OUT OF STOCK! Click here to be notified when in stock." button available on he pages of "Out of Stock" items.

Cheers,

Usually there is a restock right around the time of GenCon (early August), but that is completely unofficial and just my guess from prior experience.

Cheers!

I hope there is a restock soon.

I am after a couple of the sets of the 6" by 6" floor (pack of 6)

When these are restocked I reckon I'll be gearing up for another big order.

The Advanced Builder 2 and big floor pieces would be most welcome.
