Same here. I wonder who gets set 0001, unless of course it goes to Stefan or Jeff.

I probably don't have to say it, but looking at this set never gets old. I cannot get used to the detail and color of such a wonderful set, multiples of which will be mine. :]

Go over to "Otherworld" Miniatures - there's some rather exciting news regarding the prospect of DF (1 containers worth!) being made available to Europeans there!

Lord has put the link up, above.

Everyone should check the Otherworld website!

They're the best range of old school D&D figures going and complement DF perfectly.

And Richard (the proprieter) is having a sale on at the moment so tuck in!

Otherworld miniatures look really good but do they come painted or unpainted?

Hey guys,

Please wait for the official announcement which should be before the end of September....until then, there will only be rumors and speculation:)

But yes, as we have said we have been working on this for quite some time and are very excited that something is close to being worked out...otherworld Miniatures are great (I own a horde)and we are very excited at the prospect of working something out....nothing has been finalised yet so please let's not spread any rumors that might interfear in the final details of this deal...thanks everyone!

Stefan,
Err, umm, will DF be reciprocating and carrying Otherworld Minis? If so, can you please offer them painted for a fee??? :)
