I know what you mean Monk! Over the weekend I listed around 50+ items on eBay just to make some extra cash to buy DF sets. But, unlike you, I listed Books, and a collectors edition of star wars galaxies.

If anyone is interested in "Great Books of the Western World" check click the link below:

Combine Shipping and discounts are available to those who buy more than one.

Cool books Dndgamer! I've looked at Britannica before many years ago.

When you edit your post there are several functions you can use, including an eBay link (second from the right). Just place your cursor where you want the link to appear and click the icon -- you should end up with something like this: "" (without the qoutes). Then paste your ebay item number between the HTML code and your eBay box will appear.

Thanks Monk, this collection is very nice and will last generations to come. I hate selling them since I was hoping to have a home library to place them but that's not likely for many, many more years down the road. But at least I have space for my DF collections!!! :)

Dwarf
it's the top auction on the list of 7 auctions. The auction title is, " D&D Ral Partha Grenadier Pathfinder Huge Miniature Lot"

The link sends you to my listing of auctions not to that specific auction.

Can you let me know if you're still having trouble getting to the auction?

Has anyone else had trouble getting to the auction?

I see it as described, the first listing out of seven. Maybe Dwarf does not see it because you allowed your auction to be seen only by US bidders? If I remember correctly, Dwarf is located in Germany and eBay might be preventing him from even seeing your listing. Unfortunately I already have enough unpainted metal minis to last me a life time of painting and I won't bid on it...

It's really weird. Clicking on your link, I can only see 4 auctions running from you. Only by clicking on your name, a listing appears on the right showing the miniature auction.
And it's true, I am from germany but that usually doesn't impede me from seeing all auctions. Truly strange thing.

Dwarf,
Let me take off the shipping restrictions to Germany. I would ask that you pay actual shipping costs to germany if you win the bid. I will not charge anymore than the cost of shipping.

Dwarf,
Germany is unlocked for shipping to on my Ebay auction! You should also be able to calculate shipping costs.

IF ANOTHER PERSON WANTS TO BID from another country please let me know like Dwarf did!

Thanks Monkplayer, but don't bother to do that. Currently I am in no position to bid on that auction and only a few of those miniatures would be of interest to me. Still thank you for considering it.
