Tom, you are the man! I have downloaded most of the photos you posted to the DF forum to my ipad so I can enjoy looking at them whenever I like, which is quite often! These are being added to that collection immediately! Keep up he great work.
Cheers!

AWESOME!

Wish we could compile a large TileSystem database of some of these excellent set-ups for us to use/copy/modify...

Um...W O W!

Amazing display. Very movie inspired in the visuals, and every last important element of Moria is depicted in that very impressive setup. I always love seeing your new setups show up on the forums.

That looks like a lot of fun to play on! Great set-up. Is that a Sabertooth Games (combat hex) Balrog?

How did I miss this awesome setup? I love everyone of your pics, Tom! If only you lived nearby me...I would love to come see your amazing stuff in person. But alas, you live so far, far away.... Please keep the pics coming! They inspire me with their beauty and creativity.

I love the shot of the party, looking down the hall with all those red columns. I definitely need more red columns.

Really nice layout and I am with Sorn, not sure how I missed this till now.

And yes, please post more. Always a pleasure to see what other folks make from their sets. Very inspiring.

This is so awesome. I loved the shot of Boromir looking out the cracked door which is wearing an orc arrow!
