As I am not getting any replies to my mails, and do not get the newsletter, order confirmations, pasword retrival mails or anything else by email from Dwarven Forge I am wondering if there are certain adresses that do not work with your system? I do not want to post my adress in a public forum, it is from the German service web.de (the ending is web.de as well). I have checked the spelling of the adress I gave to you, it is correct.

I am sorry for your trouble. A few people do have trouble emailing us at our normal DF address. Please try dwarvenforgestuff {at} gmail.com to contact us.

It would appear that for some reason some service providers have us flagged as a spammer.
