Finally scored me some DF lizardmen!!

Man, I've been lusting for the DF lizardmen minis for some time now.

The fact that someone's had a set up on ebay for $195 (!!!) for months now had really discourage me from ever finding a set at a reasonable price.

Well, that all changed today when I won an auction for a complete lizard man tribe for $45 (including shipping!). I don't think that's much more than they sold for new, which is a pretty amazing deal on an OOP DF item.

Now I just need to wait for them to get here...

I hate waiting...

Congratz sir !I recently picked up as set myself. I have plenty of D&D lizard men but the DF collector in me just wanted to have them. I doubt I will find the blow gun lizard men but who knows.....

It seems like they don't come up that often on ebay. There were a few sets recently but generally they are pretty hard to find.I'm guessing there were a lot less of these sets made than the orcs and skeletons? Then again I don't see the large sets of skeletons or orcs very often either.

Ebonsworld,
Congratz you outbid me for it today. I, too, have been trying to get a Lizardman set but could not bid any higher. Glad someone from our forum got it that does not have one.

JLS304,

Congratz to you for winning the first set earlier in the week -- I was also bidding on it but went over my budget!

I'm still trying to get my hands on my first set; maybe next time if you two don't decide to go for a second or third set!! ;)

Wish me luck!

I didnt win the other one earlier this week. A buy it now popped up on friday for a really good price:) It was on ebay for less than an hour so I got lucky there.

I don't think there is much need for more than one. It's just one of those sets I never got my hands on. I like the DF skeletons for use as dead bodies in my dungeons but the orcs don't really do it for me. The lizard mean however look pretty cool and I'm glad to finally get a set.

Wow, looks like I was competing with several of my fellow DFers!

Thanks for letting me win! ;-) jls304, did you win the one that sold for $25? If so, boy, did you get a good deal!
