Misc First Photos

Hello,

Thought I'd post some photos on here for the first time. These photos are from a game the group and I did a couple of weeks ago. I didn't think to take an overhead shot of the entire setup but will next time we play.

The photos with the McFarlane dragon is on a board I've been working on. I'm trying to learn how to make custom game boards for Warhammer and 40k. I think they can be used for D&D too.

All photos were taken with Iphone so they're probably not the best quality. Hope you enjoy anyway!

Nice setup! As an added bonus, the Dwarven Forge pieces probably stick quite nicely to the surface of your billiard table! No sliding pieces (although it would not be so easy to bump a pool table hard enough to make the pieces move).

Thanks everyone!

Yeah the pieces don't go anywhere on that surface ha. Dice and game pieces don't fall off either. Sadly, when we got it the walls on almost each side were damaged and that's why we dedicated it to hobby gaming. Would love to clean the table off and play a game of pool in between gaming sessions but sadly cannot.
