Help Finding Pieces for Our DF Rooms

Hi,

Looking for Rackham Griffon Ruins / Griffon Abby

I was wondering if any of you know if the Rackham Griffon Ruins or Griffon Abby (which ever name it actually went by) was ever released to the public. I know there are pictures of this terrain on the internet from various shows before they closed their doors. Did they sell any of these terrain sets? I love the pictures of the griffon decor at the tops of the ruins and would like to find some of them. Has another company picked up their terrain line that might have it or that I might request to produce it again?

Thanks in advance to anybody who can give me some leads.

I'm also looking for the source of this beautiful Loth Statue that one of our DF fans from France posted on their webpage. I couldn't read enough of the french to figure out the source so help would be appreciated hunting one down.

_____

I think he made it by modifying a plastic model then made the base with Hirst Art moulds. I havent got a clue what model he modified it from though.

Thank you so much!

Ok next question, I saw someone use a statue of the demon/devil from the movie Legend that came out in the 80s(?) but I haven't been able to find the original pictures with it used in the den of evil set-up for dwarven forge. Has anyone else seen these pictures and does anyone know where they found the wonderful statue they used of the devil?

Thanks in advance.

Thank you so much! I've been trying to find these pieces for quite a while.

Now I just need to hunt down those griffon abby/ruins from confrontation/rackham if they were every sold. I'm hoping a company somewhere has picked up the rights and will produce them or is producing them.

Thanks again guys!
