Catacombs Set GenCon Video

Posted by Kronos - 2012/08/24 08:52

I found several awesome GenCon'12 videos on Terrainaholics Youtube channel. One of his videos shows the Dwarven Forge Booth where he has a short talk with Sandra Garrity. And he has captured the whole awesomeness of the Catacombs set in this video!!!

I took the liberty to edit it to just show the Catacombs Set and added a little music to it. Since I didn't upload the vid on Youtube but only to my blog it seems impossible to embed this video directly to our forum so just click this link to see it. :)

Here are a few images from the video:

Kronos, thank you...

The catacomb set is terribly tempting, and that video made me want it even more... Who made that unsettling music that summoned visions of the world of H.R. Giger for me?

My pleasure, Zargon. :)

I was not prepared for the awesomeness of this set. Not even after the first preview images. But seeing it in this video....I'm speechless.

Who made that unsettling music that summoned visions of the world of H.R. Giger for me?
That's "Ghosts in the Wind" from Abstract Audio.

_____

I just have to wonder how many sets were used to build the set up in the video

You are an evil man Kronos, who must be working on commission from Stefan! ;)
Thanks for the pics! As if I needed more encouragement!!
