Superb!Your painted miniatures are inspiring.The build is awsome.I really like the DoE room walls as a perimeter wall to the church.

nice set up, everything is high quality (photos, built, minis...) as usual the church is amazing

what i look for for a long time is a church set, yours is perfect with DF

and what can we tell about your favorite sentence
"After the game is before the game" thats means how a player you are:)

The church (Cemetery Chapel from Ziterdes) works really great with the Den of Evil sets, I'm absolutely happy about that. :)

KRONOS, Your setup is truly inspiring. I also like how you used the DOE walls as the outside perimeter for the church...where do you come up with all these new ideas???

Keep the pics coming.

Thank you dndgamer! :)

where do you come up with all these new ideas???

Thankfully after 22 years as a Game Master these things just pop up in my mind and I try to build the setups as close as possible to the idea with the resources at hand. :)

Cool setup as always. Did the church come prepainted?
Also where did you get the wooden bowls from ?

Thank you jgardner44 and jls304! :)

Did the church come prepainted?
That would've been cool but sadly no, it didn't.

Also where did you get the wooden bowls from ?
I think I bought them 2 years ago from a random dollhouse online shop but I don't remember the name anymore. If I find the shop again I will post a link.
