PAINT MY MINIS -- BONES Kickstarter -- GET ONE SET

Posted by dndgamer - 2012/10/07 12:08

_____

I've got two BONES kickstarter sets coming and I'm willing to give one set in payment for someone painting one set and some Option Minis for me.

Is anyone interested?

I'm sorry to tell you this but I doubt this deal will ever work...
Painting a mini takes a LOT of time and, in my opinion, no one sound-of-mind living in the Western world values it time to 1$ an hour; it takes at least 1 hour to paint a good-quality minis and you paid yours about $1 per mini...

You should give business to those guys: http://www.miniaturelovers.com/
They ask for $1.65 per minis at "collector" grade, which is very cheap!

In my neck of the woods, the cheapest you'll get a decent paint job for is around £5 (about $7). If you want a GOOD paint job, you'll pay up to £30 ($50) per figure. You can get super cheap paint jobs by sending them off to asian countries but then you've got significant shipping, import taxes etc to deal with.

Painting 100 ish figures for a deal that only cost you $100? Can't see anyone going for that mate. And if they were, I'd be very suspicious as it's too good to be true.
