My Restock Wish List

I know that everything on my wish list will not be restocked. But I thought I would put this up here so you would have an idea of what one of your customers would want in the future.

Dungeons Sets:

Catacombs Set
Fantasy Floor Set
Wicked Additions Set #3
Advanced Builders Set #2
Set of Large Columns (2)

Limited Edition Sets

Den of Evil Room Set
Realms of the Ancients Set
Realms of the Ancients Set #2
4"x4" Hellscape Floor

Individual Pieces

6" long passage
Red Pillars, Set of 8
Set of Upper and Lower Stairs
Pedestals, Set of 8

Thanks for starting this list. Even if I'm in Europe - I will be watching this thread with interest. You can never guarantee anything - but it helps to see lists like this when balancing it with other needs / constraints.

OK this is actually my first post on these forums...

Cavern Rivers and Walls
Wicked Additions #2
Wicked Additions #3
Advanced Builder #1
Advanced Builder #2
Fantasy Floors Set

Pieces:
Cavernous Lake Straight Bank Piece

And I am extremely excited that there will/may be a Catacombs 2.

Thanks!

I hope soon they restock the 6x6 dungeon tiles.. Once they get that in I may order a few sets of those and a few more 'Room sets' to add to the current collection (plus whatever the people at the gaming club I go to are interested in adding).

I wonder what people would think of the 2-inch corridor - either as singleton or two in a pack.

You know you are here for a very long time when you still remember the 15 corridor piece set - a set that contained 15 (14?) of these and the carved in dead end.

I think this was before the 6-inch corridor - but I'm wondering how new customers manage with only a few of the shorter ones?

No - this wouldn't be a restock but rather something I felt should sell well. And no - I would not want to revive the corridor only set.

If there is interest we can bring it back as an individual piece or better as a 2 or 4 Piece small set?

Thod, would you support the idea of a corridor/passage set if it was a smaller set, and had some new pieces? Or combined pieces from a few other sets?

Stefan,
Having a small set of 2" passages available would be ideal. My only dilemma would be the difference between my bowtie sets and the newer bowtieless sets...aesthetics.

That's a great idea that has a A LOT of potential IMHO.

I suggested / ask about the short corridor as I felt there is a need.

A corridor/passage set instead? With some new pieces ?

I would depend how keen I would be - but I surely support whatever Stefan comes up with. The corridors as small packs (2 seems okay for me) would be the simple solution without the need for new sculpting.

Since it looks like we aren't getting the posts back, here goes on a re-write:

I'd like the see the basic sets of DF restocked. As someone new to Dwarven Forge, I find it VERY difficult to get into it, since most of the basic versions of sets are sold out, and I can't buy an expansion set without the basic version. Examples:

They have the Cavernous Lake Expansions and the Cavernous Cavern Sets, but not Cavernous River & Walls, or even the basic 'Cavern Set.'

They have Medieval Building Expansion Set, but not the Medieval Building Set.

That, and the individual pieces would be nice. I'd like to grab some pillars, etc.

Expect the basic sets to be very, very high on the list. 24893
