Off on a new adventure! Escorting a merchant to his Familys Inn near the cross roads a few days seems like easy pay.

Ok this is what happens when a pompus fool with a wand of animate dead messes around and trys to control the remains of a long dead Owlbear buried in the woods.After a critical fumble trying to control it the idiot runs away leaving the next fools to camp here to deal with it.

Behold the next fools.

"Looks like the Cleric failed his grapple check again."
"Yeah,I thought Clerics were supposed to be good versus the Undead."

Ok on to the Dwarven Forge!

"How about a good deal on a Halberd or a Glaive Guisarme perhaps?"

If PSOM had a shopping cart up and running I would love to spend some money. There had been talk of a DF & PSOM collaboration in the past, is that still a possibility?

Amazing set up VladTaltos! Really gives me a lot of ideas. And yes thebigteacher, I would love a few of those accessories! Does anyone have any pointers on getting stuff from PSOM? Seems most of his site is in French and there doesn't seem to be a way to order anything other than via Excel docs?
