for cleaning up that interloper's posts from a few days back. My kids watch sometimes as I browse, and had that poster been a bit more agressive it could have been a bit awkward explaining.

Some idiot poster putting up links to a site promising "lesbian action" or something...

I don't know if anyone else notified Admin, but I did, as soon as I had discovered two of the posts. I think there were about four or five identical ones spread over different forum sections.

If that was the Reference I have to admit that I Chimed in, with a bit of Humor on the First of them I saw... At the Time I had not yet discovered that they were Scattered about the Place... Personally I Could Care Less, except that I find any Sort of Spam like adverts to be very Obnoxious... (And in this Case presumeably Children Could Come to DF to Find Porn Links, Pretty Uncool)... I Have not Followed up though, has Admin removed the Links?

I got a reply to my message saying he had removed all of them, and as I haven't seen any of them for the past day or so, I guess Jeff got rid of them alright!

Thanks, No more teen lesbians. Wait.....what am I saying :shock: 8)

No, seriously thanks for editing out those stupid posts, and are guests still allowed to post?

Funny :lol: , I typed in Lesbbians (Double b this time so it would go through) and it came up ducks. :lol: Too funny.....
