Anyone from PA?

I recently ordered the Cavernous Passages set and I'm awaiting its arrival. I've wanted to get DF stuff for quite awhile now, but was always hesitant due to the price.

I am wondering if any of the forum users here are from PA, and if so what part. I'm looking for a brick and mortar store that carries DF stuff.

I'm from DuBois, PA but I make trips all over so would be interested in looking for a place that carries the product.

I also infrequently go to Ohio in the Youngstown area, and to Maryland to baltimore and Ocean City.
:idea:

If your looking for Dwarven Forge in the Philly area there is a great store in the Willow grove area. Abington Game and Hobby there url is http://www.abingtongh.com/ .
Bob is the owner he's a great guy. He carries mostly the sets. If your looking for a more piece meal selection there is a shop called
The Complete Strategist. It's not easy to find but may have what your looking for.
The Complete Strategist
580 Shoemaker Road
King Of Prussia
PA
Tel: 610 265 8562
Since you travel. take a look at http://www.grognard.org/ they have a semi-comprehensive listing of gameshops. It can be cumbersome to use the data base but I stumbled on stores in Jersey I never knew existed.
Hope this helps.

Last I had checked, The Comic Store in York, PA had a decent selection of DF stuff. Though to be honest, It has been a few years now since this new game shop opened last summer much closer. Unfortunately, This new shop does not carry DF stuff.

I'm in the South east corner of PA. I live just across the border in MD. There's a store called "Days of Knights" in the newark, DE area. I'm sure they'd order it if needed, but if you aren't nearby I'd go with one of the ones that normally carries it.

My fiance and I went to Ocean City, MD in July and we did a lot of shopping in MD and DE. We were able to locate a few gaming shops, but none carried DF stuff so I was disappointed. Comic Store West in York, PA doesn't carry DF but they do carry Terraform terrain. I'll post anything I find in the mean time as I continue to look.
