Shipping to the UK

Hi, OK this might be in the wrong place, but i cannot seem to find the correct spot to post it.

But got a quick question..

Now with the new website, are DF able to ship to the UK now?
As i cannot seem to find a decent local supplier for DF sets these days.

Cheers

John

John,

I don't think they ship outside USA/Canada yet. I really don't know why, as there are plenty couriers who would be happy to take their business. I would certainly place a big fat order from the UK as soon as I could. Even with shipping costs applied, it would still be cheaper than paying the over-inflated prices charged by the UK distributor, and therefore UK games shops.

If I had a suspicious nature, I would say that DF and Esdevium Games (UK distributor) have come to some sort of agreement to make sure that we can't buy stuff direct and cut out the middle men!

If I'm wrong, I'm sure that Admin will post a message to let me know!

DF safes are likly to be suffering if otherpeople/stockists have having the same problems that I have experienced recently and in the past with Esdevium Games.

Why cant DF ship directly to the UK, other game supplier do. ?
