Con Season DF Sci-Fi and the games we play

Okay folks since GenCon is coming up next week are there any reports of a huge SW Minis game breaking out on Sci-Fi DF terrain? If so would someone bring back pics?

Who is going to GenCon to play SW Minis, or other games?

Can't go. I have to travel to conventions enough for my career, I just can't squeeze in any for my hobby! ;)

Not going to GenCon.

I go to Origins every year, and two big gaming conventions that close together would just be too expensive.

I'll be there with camera in hand. If I get any good pics I'll be sure to post them.

I didn't even get to LinCon in LinkÃƒÂ¶ping this year, which is a mere 200 km from Stockholm...

Dragon is about 4 1/2 hours from here, so it is a reasonable trip... Gen Con is Wisconsin right?
