The DoE was developed with the team of Jeff Martin, Darryl Jones, and Stefan Pokorny. Perhaps we can get all 3 people to sign some. I like the fact that the distribution will be random...with maybe 24 or so going out in the mail.

I will try to make this happen.

That's a cool idea--have the team sign an insert or the actual box.

I think we will just make it a free random surprise...kind of like rolling "00" on a treasure roll.

...kind of like finding a Golden Ticket inside a Wonka Bar. Do winners get to tour the DF factory?

:mrgreen:
