Also will you be carrying all of their environments? If not which ones? Re:PSOM Miniatures Posted by jackattack - 2011/11/13 10:21 Say what? Re:PSOM Miniatures Posted by Shadbelly - 2011/11/13 10:59 There was talk awhile back about DF offering some of the PSOM sets. I was going to order some direct from PSOM but if I can skip some of the shipping costs and the exchange rate of the dollar to euro I was going to. http://psomminiature.com/ Re:PSOM Miniatures Posted by jackattack - 2011/11/13 12:25 I gathered from that thread that PSOM's owners/creators are working on some sculpts for DF, of which the Wooden House set is the first. Which is apparently different from PSOM's Stables line in some way. The thread further states that future collaboration will be new sets, and that DF and PSOM will remain separate companies. Stefan also encouraged anyone who likes PSOM Miniatures products to go ahead and order them from PSOM.

DF has produced pieces designed by other artists before, but doesn't sell the other artist's other products on the DF website. I think this is a similar arrangement.

If I am wrong, then I'm wrong. But the information we have from the forum (so far) makes me think I'm not.
