I would be happy with some restocks of the old sets, let alone some new sets :)

This line doesnt sell that well historicly but I think demand is growing.

At this time we are not planning any new sets in the immediate future...but things can always change with Stefan's inspirations!

Are you planing to restock scifi sets ?

I would like to get one of each (I own the last I use many times) but 1 has completely disappeared from your website and the other is still out of stock.

Didn't find a fan who is selling thoses sets here and ebay is out of price.
