Awesome!
As soon as I finish my PhD work (if the stars align in just the right way I will be writing my dissertation in December) and find a job that is semi-permanent I will buy a home that has a space for a game room - preferably a basement. The best part is that my wife thinks it is a good idea.
I am planning for it to be a game room/tavern. Basically there will be a large table like Monkplayer's (I dig the functionality of it) with storage but there will also be a small bar area with beer on tap (I plan to start homebrewing). I have thought about using wood beams and stucco to go with a "tudor" house look like the medieval building set.
EDIT: Monkplayer should have us all over for an adventure! I will bring Nachos!

1/3

Dwarven Forge - Dwarven Forge Generated: 25 January, 2015, 22:34 I hope your friends know how lucky they are to be able to enjoy that table. Thanks for sharing. ______ Re:the gaming room of Monkplayer Posted by Harneloot - 2012/10/05 20:49 Indeed - easily the best I've ever seen! Now - how about some pictures of the joyous/tragic adventures that have transpired therein?! ______ Re:the gaming room of Monkplayer Posted by Zargon - 2012/10/05 23:37 It's jawdropping. These photos are ad campaign level, the only thing that would make it better is to see the group of heroes and DM seated around that thing having the time of their lives. Possibly the MD group from the craigslist post;) haha j/k

WOW. That's jaw dropping awesome! This game room is a dream come true. Just stunning.

Now - how about some pictures of the joyous/tragic adventures that have transpired therein?! I would also love to see pictures from these games! :)

I love that table! I know I couldn't afford one pre-built, but I'd certainly buy the design plans to build my own;).

@Zargon Alas my friend it was not I who posted the Craigslist ad! I don't plan on giving my wife my game room in a divorce settlement because there is a half nude female GM in my game room! Ironically, I DO GM an all female gaming session every two weeks but it is all done in the proper chivalrous manner you would expect in a 13th Century European Tavern BEFORE the drinking was well under way.

I really appreciate everyones generous compliments. it's been a while since I've posted anything about my game room. There's been a lot of "buzz" about my game room around the Internet. Here are the website addresses that have done Feature Stories on my game room:

The 1stoplighting.com site paid for 1/2 the photographers fee!

Too bad we live on opposite coasts, I'd love the chance to check that out in person. Stellar job. I know you put a lot of time and effort into it!
