These pictures and video are just one set each of the DOE Room and Wicked Edition sets. This is Mephistopheles inner chambers, and they are being invaded by a band of epic adventurers. Their purpose is not good but greed.

I love it!

Great painting too!

Could you tell us more about the fiery orange grid underneath your setup?

Cool setup and minis! I think that may be a Paizo flipmat underneath? It's a great choice, it really fits well with the setup.

Thanks for posting!

Posted by Feymous - 2012/12/03 00:21 Cool setup. I agree, the mat underneath does a great job of adding to the overall atmosphere. I love the beautifully painted minis. Who makes the mini in the last photo? Re:Mephistopheles' Inner Chambers Posted by radien - 2012/12/03 17:22 Thanks Feymous! The last miniature is made by Reaper. It is Satheras, Elf Warlock (03381).
