Hi, I'm looking to buy multiple copies of each of the Realm of the Ancients sets. I've been combing the net for ROTA 2 for about a year with no luck and I'd like more of the original set too. Help!

These products are available only on the official Dwarven Forge web site, unless you're in luck and someone sells what you're looking for on eBay. To cut on producing fees, DF gets about 2 huge shipments per year of newly made DF Sets from China. The next container arriving will be in December/January, and the next one after probably in summer 2013. I'm not sure in which of those 2 shipments the 2 ROTA Sets you are looking for will be re-stocked. Keep looking or register to be notified when these out-of-stock items are back in stock (go on those item's description page).

Good Luck!

p.s. In my experience of collecting DF, make huge orders less frequently and you'll end up having more for your bucks! This way, you save on shipping fees. Also, please note that DF is open to special deals if you buy a LOT of Sets at once!

Thank you for the response, as I too have been frustrated by the difficulty in getting my hands on some of the more recent sets. As a noob to the DF world(just started collecting about a month ago), I've was overjoyed to find out such great stuff exists, but it's been an ongoing battle to put together the sets I need. Locals have been trying to fleece me and ebay sets tend to go fast and sell very high.

Super excited that DF will be restocking - thanks again.

DF is a VERY small company so sometimes you have to wait awhile for out of stock sets to come back.

However, the quality of the sets, the amazing community here and their impeccable customer service makes it worth the expense and the wait.

I agree, they are a great company. The purpose of this thread was to see if anyone had ROTA 1 or 2 sets they want to sell. Thanks!

I have a ROTA I'd reluctantly sell. Email me at jls304 @ hotmail.com if you are still looking.

Id like to buy some rota preorder pieces if anyone ever considers selling them.
