Mystery Miniature Posted by GoldenAxe - 2013/07/03 18:10 Mystery Miniature Hello DF Fans I am trying to identify a miniature and having a lot of trouble. It looks like a chain fiend of golem. Maybe a bound demon or undead. Has anybody seen this mini before? The makers mark is gone except 1995. Any help would be greatly appreciated. ...I am certain that I have this figure.

I bought it Painted and based so can not look at the tag.

I do not think it is very old... I think it is manufactured by Games Workshop.

(If it is as old as you think - then it might be as they were originally known - in the good old days -'Citadel'.)

It is not a game worshop miniature. It's a miniature from the wargame warzone.
