

Plate Mail Games MP3 Kickstarter 2!

Posted by TexasStu - 2013/10/17 00:37

I know Stefan (and several DF backers) backed Wes before for MP3s for gaming. This time there's a lot more monsters and SFX IMHO.

238 for $75 (not including potential stretch goals).

Wes has raised the bar and I'm walking into it! ;-)

TexasStu, I don't know how you keep finding these awesome Kickstartersbut I'm glad you share them with us here. Otherwise I would never have found out about them. Thanks!

Well, I backed the last one. Plus I've been kind of making Wes hate me as I'm such a pest to tell him to do more updates, offer more bribes, tease more, contact more RPG sites, get more people sharing, tweeted the crap outta his KS and all that noise (as opposed to quality sound Wes makes!)

Just ask Stefan. (as to how much a pest I can be!) Stefan is far too cool to admit it tho.

Us old guys just don't give a crap. We say what we want and those who agree love us and those who don't blow us off.

I also recommended it on the awesome gaming projects.

Seriously though, this KS is closer to what I wanted from the last. Many just want ambient but I want all these AWESOME SFX and monsters sounds (right, Stefan?). And as we also get the 20 new ambients that brings us to 258 MP3's for $75 (before any stretch goals (which will be considerable if it goes as I envision). Worry NOT Wes! We'll draft us a crowd to Dwarven FORGE you ahead!

I crack meself up.

Off to watch Arrow. Enjoy!

Any idea how compatible, if at all, this project will be with the RealmSound project that finished just a few weeks ago?

I'm a Realmsound backer as well. They said you can use your own sounds so SHOULD BE 100%

From Realmsound 2.0 FAQ:

Will I be able to import my own audio files onto the Soundboard?

Yes. The Realmsound Soundboard will give users the ability to import their own audio files onto the soundboard.

Wes has added more ambients and a pledge level for those who just want music and ambient sound!

Wes Otis (Plate Mail Games) has cancelled the KS.
Currently he is re doing it with LOWER pledge levels and more options.
Per his update:

Project Update #5: Rebooting this KS

Hello all,

I think with the confusion over stretch goals and reward levels has cost us backers. I made a mistake with the stretch goals and pricing. I apologize. I have decided to cancel this project today and rework the reward levels. The new KS reward Levels will be $25 for spells and weapons, $25 for Backgrounds and Music, $50 for everything including monsters and traps. $100 for the upper tiers and $200 for the emperor level. Also, I'm going to lower the fund goal to $25,000. This means I could be paying a lot more out of pocket to make this all happen but this project is very important to me. I hope you will all follow me over the new KS. I hope to have it up in the next couple of days.
