

First Setup

Posted by nabsten - 2013/03/04 16:01

I finally got a chance to create my first Dwarven Forge set up.

Brilliant build!

That is the problem with the catacombs set...

The skeletons supplied by DF are restless and forever getting up and attacking the adventurers trying to 'search the bodies for treasure'....

Great Setup. If fact so great I would say that setup ROCKS THE FREE WORLD!!!

I thought I had all the plasti-crack ever created but I do not remember that skeleton. Can you identify it so I can rest knowing I have it. :-)

Shadox,

Those are from the last D&D miniatures set, Lords of Madness.

Thanks for the feedback everyone!
